MEN TORK HERALD, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1835

here read, saying that the Soard of Aldermen had re-leased to confer with the Board of Councilmen, and the report recommends that the Board of Aldermen be voted disrespectful, discourseous, and other things foul.

Upon this report a resolution and short debate sprung up, in which a great deal was said about the injured dig-slay of the Board, and the necessity of defending it. The vote was then taken upon the resolution to con-mrs, which was carried—28 voting in the affirmative, and 7 in the negative.

After some further unimportant business, the Board adjourned till Monday evening.
